EICO NOVACHEM Srl

our chemistry, your success

Eico Novachem is a family company with 50 years history on the Italian market. We are distributor of chemical special raw materials for many application industries. Our strength is offering our clients Quality, Service and Technical assistance, thanks to our strong logistic and our technical-sales departments, which are trained and knowledgeable about any end market and formulation application field.

We distribute chemical raw materials with main focus on specialties, for many application sectors, such as: Cosmetics, Pharma, Adhesives, Paper, Coatings, Lubricants, Rubber and Plastics. We provide high and constant quality products, mainly from Europe and US, together with an excellent technical assistance about final formulations.
