

FRIEM S.p.A.

ASSOLOMBARDA

Filiera Energy Sustainable Global Chain

FRIEM is an Italian technology provider expert since 1950, in energy conversion, specialized in designing and manufacturing electric Power Converters for special applications.

Important player of the energy transformation, FRIEM is today an international Group with offices, workshops and representatives across all continents, beyond a Service Department providing on-site support in more than 10 Countries.

The Group's holding company FRIEM S.p.A. has its headquarters in Segrate (Milan) and three subsidiaries in USA (FRIEM America Ltd), Brasil (FRIEM LATAM Eireli), and Indonesia.

Tel.: +39.0287235353
marketing@friem.com

The Group's activities are divided in three Business Units and a shared Service organization, providing solutions and services to different markets:

- Industry: specialized in Rectifier Systems and Power Converters for the chemical and mining electrolysis industries and for all the applications requiring high direct current.
- Energy: specialized in Inverters and Power Converters for Renewable Energies, beyond solutions dedicated to employ the energy produced by renewable resources (mini grid and off-grid), and to the relevant energy storage.
- Mobility: specialized in EV charging solutions and infrastructures for domestic and public use, besides vehicles electrification, rectifier systems for railways, tram lines and underground.

www.friem.com