

We are the HR business partner that promotes employee growth and company development. We work alongside with CEOs, HR, and managers to initiate continuous improvement processes and create people-centered solutions, enhancing business through transformation strategies and effective People Strategy.

Radical HR develops tailored learning and consulting projects for companies. We offer business transformation strategies, People Strategy, and Corporate University to ensure tangible and measurable changes. Additionally, our LMS Skillsincloud allows for the creation of private academies without setup costs, featuring an advanced AI chatbot that guides users and provides immediate support, improving learning effectiveness.
