

Who we are

IIP has developed and focused its activities primarily on certification services about system and product of plastics supply chain. Later it expanded the provided services through the implementation of advanced and qualified laboratories for the testing of mechanical performance and the chemical characterization of materials and plastic and rubber products, paper and cardboard, becoming soon the main institutional reference in this field.

Contacts

Tel.+39 039 2045700

Cristina.sancolodi@iip.it

Services description

Certification of Management Systems

IIP is an accredited body for the certification of quality, environmental, health and safety at work management systems.

Product certification

IIP verifies their compliance with the requirements set by a rule or by a technical specification, issuing the related certification

Laboratory tests

IIP has laboratories for physical, mechanical and chemical tests on plastics and the advanced laboratories for food packagings