Who we are

JAPAL is born from the experience of MyChicJungle, a consulting firm, founded by Paolo Broglia and Jacopo Moschini, sting of reference for integrated communication with particular focus to the digital world.

Product description

Japal is a new e-commerce service that, through a customized brand page according to the brand's look and feel, allows their customers to buy online the entire range of products, even those that are difficult to find, without going in competition with the traditional channel.

In addition to managing the store, we take care of all logistics, administration and customer care. We are already the official digital retailer of many international brands in the mass market such as Arbre Magique, Pomodoro Petti, Coppertone, Orphea, Bonomelli, Cannamela, The Infré, etc.
