ASSOLOMBARDA
Filiera Agroalimentare

TBWA is a global communication company (11,000+ creative minds in over 40 countries) . We develop disruptive brand ideas that change culture and drive impact. We do this by studying and breaking industry conventions and creating Disruption® platforms that instruct all parts of the customer experience. We create a brand platform. From the brand strategy to experience design and innovation. From omnichannel campaigns and events to digital marketing and social to end to end production. In Italy we are in Milan and Rome.
